From the Administrator:

Dear Parents and Students,

Today I am taking on the role of the begging Principal! I really, really need your help. Here in Alaska we tend not to get overly excited about deadlines, but I need to have you get excited about turning in your enrollment forms for the 2009/2010 school year. We can put your registration fee on your June 1 billing so it is not necessary to have the registration fee accompany the enrollment form. Please understand that if you turn in the forms we will bill your account on June 1 for the registration fee.

Why am I begging you to get your enrollment form in now? I can not wait until June to determine our staffing needs for the 2009/2010 school year. I need to have staffing completed by April 30th. So that is why I am asking you to take care of your enrollment for next school year as soon as you possibly can. This principal would be most Thankful if you would address this matter over the next 29 days.

One final thought! Please turn in the enrollment form to indicate whether you are returning or if you are not returning for the fall term.

Sunday is Palm Sunday, the beginning of Holy Week. All Anchor programs are closed on Good Friday and Easter Monday. Regular hours for all programs will resume on Tuesday, April 14.

Tickets for the April 16 and 17 Jr. High production of the "Mikado" are on sale now in the school office. This dessert theater is a tradition that has produced some wonderful and entertaining moments.

Blessings to all of you as we begin our journey into Holy Week and the Passion of our Lord Jesus and the Joyous Easter Celebration of His resurrection!

Mr. Brosz

Special thanks to Cheryl Rathjen and John Gould for spending their afternoons this week helping with the Presidential Challenge! Also, thank you to Mary Shannon and Regina Earhart who helped!

You made it possible!
